ABOUT LEGUSTRY

LeGusTry is a full service digital marketing agency expertised in digital marketing strategy, website design & development, social media marketing, viral and search marketing. Different than other agencies working project specific, LeGusTry Digital puts sustainability at the centre of online communication.

We are a collection of digital strategists, creative managers, account managers, designers and engineers...who have perfectionism in hearts to that make our clients satisfied.

We understand that building strong relationship between a brand and their customers needs long time, that's why we prefer to work continuously with a brand rather than just focusing on short-term projects. We act as not only an implementer but their brand's consultant, giving them great advices and creative ideas of marketing communication in digital environment.

As a result, the best benefit LeGusTry brings to the brand is: "Sustainable interaction".
